

The Bleeding Heart

---

There is a heart that is bleeding:

Bleeding for the lost that they might be found,

Bleeding for the captives that they might be free.

Bleeding for the hungry that they might be fed,

Bleeding for the blind that they might see more of the Kingdom,

Bleeding for the seekers that they receive the prize they seek,

Bleeding for the deaf that they might hear words from the Father,

Bleeding for the hurt that they might be healed,

Bleeding for the lonely that they might know love.

Bleeding with the blood that cleanses our souls,

Washing away all that keeps us

From the pure, loving heart of God.
