

The Power in this Place

Background

I was attending the Leaders Hub in Twerton, Bath on 27th April 2012 when I received the draft of this declaration. We used it but I felt it needed a little reworking. The final version is below.

The Power in this Place

There's a power in this place that none can resist, but why would we want to when it brings us face to face with the Lamb of God.

It's a power not intended to break us but to release us from the so-called power of the one who would stop us coming into God's presence

It's a power that unites us with the almighty King of Heaven, free from the tyranny of the mere prince of this world, and enables us to become adopted sons of God and joint heirs with Christ.
