

The Wings of the Lord

The Father has spread His wings to protect us from the heat of the day. He invites us into His shade so that we won't be burnt or harmed in any way. No unholy power can come into that shade. Only those he invites may enter. He invites you and me just as we are. Come let us go in.

Pete Bennett
26 November 2012
at Lox Lane Christian Centre