

When We Ask for Spiritual Gifts

---

Background

I was attending the In:Courage Revival Camp in June 2012 which was a terrific event. God gave me a number of words - some for me personally, some for others at the event and some for a wider application. This is one of the latter. The Speaker is God.

When We Ask for Spiritual Gifts

"I am delighted when you ask for my gifts and when you ask eagerly, not out of habit or according to some formula. When you ask from the depths of your heart, I will lavish countless gifts on you. Be ready to receive in quantities beyond your imagination - my storehouses are not and will never be hit by recession or credit crunch, they will never be depleted. It is my desire that my people are super-equipped. I will send my angels to carry that which is too heavy or bulky for you. They will always be on hand for you, passing what you need as you need it. Do not worry if you feel inadequate for that is when I can use you most - when you have to rely on me."
